Danny Siegel, Founder of the Ziv Tzedakah Fund, is an author and lecturer who has spoken in more than 500 North American Jewish communities on Tzedakah and Jewish values. He is the author of 29 books on such topics as Mitzvah heroes and practical and personalized Tzedakah, and has produced an anthology of 500 selections of Talmudic quotes about living the Jewish life well called Where Heaven and Earth Touch. Danny has also published several books of poetry.

Danny Siegel founded the Ziv Tzedakah Fund in 1981 after making several trips to Israel. The Jewish tradition teaches that anyone on a Mitzvah mission will be saved from harm, and so, on each trip, Danny followed this age-old custom and asked friends and relatives for a dollar or two to give away to Tzedakah upon his arrival in the Holy Land. Once in Israel, Danny went in search of ordinary Israelis who were working tirelessly and simply trying to make the world a better place.

Returning from each trip, Danny wrote a one-page report to all of his donors in which he described all of the places that he had distributed their Tzedakah money. From that first $955 Danny collected and gave away, Ziv has grown to an organization that in 2004 completed its 29th year of operation and has distributed more than $6,700,000 since its inception.

Danny has a B.S. in Comparative Literature from Columbia University's School of General Studies, and a Bachelor's and Master's of Hebrew Literature from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. He is one of three recipients of the prestigious 1993 Covenant Award for Exceptional Jewish Educators.

Please join us for a brunch honoring the members of the
for their commitment to philanthropy and volunteerism.
