Youth Philanthropy Connect

Youth Philanthropy Connect (YPC)'s mission is to connect youth grantmakers (ages 8-21) and the adults who support them to each other, to resources, and learning, while also growing the movement of youth engaged in philanthropy. YPC has developed resources and tools as well. We have a youth leadership team of experienced youth philanthropists who lead our work—which we recruit for every summer. To learn more, visit www.youthphilanthropyconnect.org or email us at ypc@youthphilanthropyconnect.org.

YouthGiving.org

A place that harnesses the knowledge, energy, and breadth of youth grantmakers to tell a story and move towards greater philanthropic impact.

roleplay

21/64, in partnership with YPC, created roleplay as a tool to help you leverage an often overlooked way to explore your role in philanthropy: play. This interactive tool helps users gain awareness of how they act in different roles to make mindful choices about the roles they want to play. 21/64 offers resources, like roleplay, and consulting services at:
