Youth Ambassador Council
Cohort 4: 2019-2020
Program Description and Requirements

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: The Jewish Teen Funders Network (JTFN) Youth Ambassador Council is a group of teen philanthropists from across North America. Launched in 2016, the Youth Ambassador Council was created to connect JTFN directly with teens in the field, to learn together, and to increase the general understanding of the broad field of Jewish teen philanthropy. Meeting virtually throughout the school year, the Youth Ambassador Council offers a unique space where teens can share their insights and have real impact on a global organization.

GOAL: To empower the teen voice by fostering relationships with representatives from the field of Jewish teen philanthropy.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

A. Requirements
   a. Participants must have been a member of a teen foundation for at least one full cycle within the past two years.
   b. Participants must be in the 10th, 11th or 12th grade.
   c. Participants must be nominated by their program leader.
   d. Only ONE teen from your program may receive a nomination.
   e. Once nominated, each candidate will be required to submit an application.

B. Expectations/Commitment
   a. Participants will commit to attending four, 1-hour, online group sessions throughout the year. These sessions will require the use of a computer or tablet that has access to a webcam.
   b. In addition to meetings, participants will dedicate an additional 5-10 hours of their time. This will include:
      1. As the current “voice” of Jewish teen philanthropy, participants will be required to create content. Applicants should be comfortable with/want to learn more about writing and public speaking. Content may include writing an article, creating a video, or being a guest on the JTFN podcast.
      2. Participants will be expected to answer evaluations and questions in between sessions that will help drive discussions and inspire content. Participants may also be asked to read relevant literature or articles.
